 "Did you tell him how much money you made?"
 "Yes, it was $15 or $20 a week."
 Then, the witness continued, she applied for a position upon the stage. The first manager to whom she applied said that:
 "It was not a baby farm," and they did not want to take her.
 "I danced for the manager, and he offered me a place, directing me not to tell how old I was."
 "In 1901,"
 "How many times had you seen him between then and 1902?"
 "I had only seen him once in the meantime."
 "Were you ill during any of this time?"
 "Yes, I had to go to a hospital."
 "When you saw Mr. Thaw in 1902 did you tell him about going to school?"
 "I told him that Mr. White had sent me to school."
 The witness told of her sickness and the operation to which she was obliged to submit, and of Thaw's kindness to her at that time, which was early in 1902. After her recovery, Thaw arranged the European trip for the witness and her mother. Thaw followed them to Europe.
 Here reference was made to a letter Thaw wrote to the witness while she was abroad, and Delmas sought to introduce it as evidence. Jerome objected.
 "What is the relevancy of the letter?" asked Justice Fitzgerald.
 "Its contents have direct reference to the statement made by the witness to Mr. Thaw and is an evidence of the effect upon the mind of Mr. Thaw of the statements so made," replied Delmas.
 "If it were proper to admit the statement of Mr. Thaw after the shooting, he has ruined my wife," argued Delmas. "It is not proper to admit a statement made by the defendant which learned facts to show what the effect of them was upon his mind."
 Delmas said that he did not have his authorities at the moment. It was then 11:30, and Delmas asked for an adjournment until 2 o'clock.
AFTERNOON SESSION.
 Roger O'Mara, head of a detective employed by the defense, had a fifteen-minute conference with Mrs. Harry Thaw during the recess. A former Judge William K. O'Connell who was the first counsel engaged for Thaw in his defense, appeared, during recess, and conferred with Garvin. He was told that it was understood that Mrs. Evelyn Thaw had made a statement in regard to her relations with White Thaw to Judge O'Connell when the trouble first came up. Judge O'Connell was asked to present the signed statement, if it were in existence, or to be ready to testify if he was wanted.
 Delmas was about to renew his argument for the production of the letter of Harry Thaw to an attorney named Longfellow, just after the Paris incident, when Jerome said he would draw his objection. He first asked permission to read the letter. It was as follows:
 "Mrs. N.—Insisted on sailing for New York when her daughter left. I kept Mrs. N.—in London three months, cost over $100. Mrs. Nesbit sails tomorrow for New York. She thinks I kidnapped her seventeen-year-old daughter. Before she lands she will know that I have always done the best I could. The child cannot be with her mother, because when she was 15 years old she was 'ruined by a black-guard. Don't worry, but find out her address. Telephone Mrs. N.—, but not in your name. Ask her if she saw Mr. Thaw aboard. As soon as she answers hang up the telephone."
 On a slip of paper enclosed was written: "If you cannot read this don't worry. Please telephone her inco, and wire me at my telephone."
 The letter was signed "H. K. T."
 Delmas offered another letter written by Thaw. Jerome objected on the ground that there was nothing to indicate its date. Delmas declared that the letter was admissible as tending to show state of mind, regardless of when it was written.
 "Suppose it should have been written yesterday," suggested Justice Fitzgerald.
 "I think it would be admissible," replied Delmas.
 "That the defendant is now insane," quickly interposed Jerome.
 "That he was insane on the night of June 25, 1906," said Delmas.
 Justice Fitzgerald sustained the objection.
 "If the claim is that the defendant is now insane, the letters are admissible," remarked Jerome.
 Mrs. Thaw was shown one of the letters, and was asked:
 "Was this letter written before or after June 25, 1906?"
 "Not at first," she answered, and then she was asked to express an opinion.
 The court sustained the objection. The subject of letters was then dropped.
 In response to questions by Delmas, Mrs. Thaw described the return trip from Europe in 1906, which preceded the return of Thaw. She said that she brought a letter from Thaw to Longfellow, which she delivered. She first saw Thaw at the hotel where he was stopping. She refused to see him alone, so another man was present at the interview.
 "The second man," asked Delmas, "was a member of the bar, a man of standing in the community, was he not?"
 "Yes."
 "What happened at this interview?"
 "I sat on a trunk. Mr. Thaw came toward me and asked the other man not to leave the room. Mr. Thaw said to me, 'What is the matter? Why don't you want to see me?'"
 "I screamed," she said, "and he took a girl and put her in a bathtub and poured scalding water on her. I also told him I heard he took morphine."
 "Did you tell Thaw who told you these stories?"
 "Not at first. Later I told him a friend of Mr. White told me."
 "What did Mr. Thaw do?"
 "He said she had said and said: 'Poor little Evelyn, see they have been making a fool of you.' I told him that Mr. White had taken me to Abe Hurns' law office and had shown me papers in a suit in which a girl had made charges against Mr. Thaw."
 "About ten minutes,"
 "What did Mr. Thaw do on leaving?"
 "He kissed my hand and said he did not care what I did. I would always be his little angel."
 "Did he often call you angel?"
 "Yes, always."
 Mrs. Thaw said she met Harry several weeks later on the street.
 "He said to me," she said, "I told me I was looking badly. I told him I had not been well. He told me I should not put rouge on my cheeks, as I am overstrained, you see."
 At this point adjournment was taken until tomorrow.
INTEREST IN EUROPE.
 PAPERS FULL OF TRIAL.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 LONDON, Feb. 7.—The case of Harry K. Thaw is attracting a great deal of interest in the United States. The newspapers this morning publish many columns of the evidence given yesterday.
 Rain has been falling and is increasing the discomforts of the earthquake refugees at Kingston, who are encamped in the race track and in the parks.

NEW TAX PLAN NOW PROPOSED.
STIR IN PARIS OVER BILL IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES.

It Enacted It Will Readjust Entire System of Finance—Assessment of Income the Basis Principle—Proposal Makes a "Hit" With Socialists.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 PARIS, Feb. 7.—The government's new scheme for taxation introduced in the Chamber of Deputies today, created a stir when it was made public this afternoon after the closing of the Bourse. If enacted into a law it will constitute a complete readjustment of the financial system. The old door window, poll and other direct taxes are to be replaced by a system based upon incomes. Day laborers are practically exempted.

The tax upon incomes of over $1000 a year is made progressive up to 4 per cent. of the total. Even government rents, excepting those held abroad, only nominally escape. The coupons (rents) being exempt, but the revenue therefrom being taxed when the total income of the holder exceeds the minimum laid down.

French savings are largely invested in rents. The burdens placed upon foreign securities, both private and governmental, constitutes a particularly heavy blow to Russian securities, of which it is estimated that from eight to ten millions are held in France.

This new income tax measure is one of the radical reforms to which the Clemenceau ministry committed itself upon assuming office. It was submitted for the approval of M. Jaures, the Socialist leader, before introduction in the Chamber, and while it is received with unbounded joy by the Socialists, as a proper shifting of the burden of taxation to the shoulders of the idle rich, it is sure to encounter intense opposition from the more moderate Republicans, as well as from the conservatives.

How the nation at large will receive the measure remains to be seen; and, while it is received by the rich, it seems likely to prove popular with the masses. Only half a million families are affected by the higher progressive scale, which Finance Minister Caillaux estimates will produce $44,000,000 a year. The other 500,000 families, who live upon modest savings that produce less than $2000 a year, and which are liable to the lower rate of taxation.

MOTHER DIES OF GRIEF.
 Three Deaths Are Directly Traced to Game of Basketball Played by Young Girl.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
 PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Grief over the death of her daughter caused the death last evening of Mrs. Elizabeth Corbett of Corsica, Pa., near this city.

When it was found that she was dying, her pastor for thirty-one years, Rev. Dr. Frank P. Britt, was summoned and remained with her to the end. Terribly grieved over her sudden death, Dr. Britt went to his home, was seized with an attack of heart failure and died early this morning.

The three deaths were all indirectly due to a game of basketball which was participated in by Miss Sarah Belle Corbett, daughter of Mrs. Corbett.

Miss Corbett was badly injured and it was necessary to amputate one of her legs. She never recovered from the shock and died within a few days after the operation had been performed.

The dungeon of the old feudal castle at Chateau Renault, near Tours, France, built in the eleventh century, has been destroyed by fire.

Stanislaus County Is After

Information.

Big Party of Its Citizens Is Due Today.

Seek Points on Los Angeles

Prosperity.

From Stanislaus county will arrive

this morning 150 of its prominent business men and women, with a purpose other than a jaunt. They seek Los Angeles county as a place to get points for booming Stanislaus county and advertising its attractions.

For three days the party will be entertained by the Chamber of Commerce, then they will break up into groups and wander where the spirit takes them. But it is safe to say that when they return to the northern counties they will take with them not only new ideas for helping the prosperity of their own county, but a realization of why Los Angeles stands by itself as a lure to prosperity and a Mecca for the western hemisphere.

There are two things especially for which Stanislaus county is famous in the great G. Grange dam on the Tuolumne

River and its sweet potatoes.

The G. Grange dam is really a wonderful achievement in many ways and

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Bliss Tonight.

Jacobs will lecture tonight at Simpson Auditorium.

Youngworth Goes East.

United States Marshal Leo Youngworth has started East with Mrs. A. Glanville, who is wanted at Memphis, Tenn., as a witness in a counterfeiting case to be tried there.

Chautauqua Picnic.

The annual Chautauqua county (N. T.) picnic will be held at Eastlake Park next Saturday. All former residents of Chautauqua county are cordially invited to be present as early as 11 o'clock. As usual, the reunion will be in the form of a basket picnic.

Redondo Villa Railroad.

The new Redondo Villa Railroad will soon be running, the first shipment of steel rails having arrived yesterday. Locomotive No. 1, which was imported from the Deutsche Locomotive Works, Cologne, Germany, arrived the previous day, as did also locomotive No. 2, from the Sheffield Car Works, of Three Rivers, Wis.

Worked an Old Game.

George Swanson, John Dixon, H. B. W. McLean, W. F. Settle, and S. M. Howell will be in Police Court charged with peddling and conducting a lottery. The men were hawking watches on Main street and were selling numbers. They drew on a watch. The holder of the right number was to win the timepiece. Plain clothes officers arrested the men.

Religious His Mania.

Earl Adams, suffering from religious insanity, was taken into custody by a patrolman who, yesterday prevented the young man from eating himself beneath the hood of an electric car. This happened at the corner of Fourth and Hill streets. Adams is said to live in Pasadena. He believes the world would be useless if a sacrificed his life. He will be taken today before an insanity commission.

Advice Wanted Good.

Earl King, 18 years old, was arrested last night by detectives on the charge of grand larceny, and was sent to the Detention Home. According to the officers, the lad sold his father's bicycle in front of an automobile shop at Twelfth and Main streets. Another boy advised him to take it, King said, and he did so. The police are anxious to learn the identity of the owner of the wheel.

Thrown out of Auto.

Mrs. Nelson Wolcott was thrown out of an automobile on West Seventh street yesterday, while on her way to look at real estate offered for sale. She was conveyed to her home on Twenty-second near Normandie, and is there resting, doing as well as possible under the circumstances. While no bones appear to have been broken, internal injuries that may cause severe suffering and inconvenience are feared.

Allen Case.

Final disposition of the case of Leigh Allen, who has confessed to the Federal authorities that he is guilty on five charges of obtaining money on false pretenses from the postal service, will be made next Thursday, when the matter will come up before Judge McWhorter. Allen cannot get less than five years in the penitentiary on his present confession, if the government decides on a heavier penalty, that could be inflicted, or if other charges pending were prosecuted, they would add to his punishment.

Two Girls Missing.

Josephine Linder, aged 16, and Mary Linder, 14 years old, were reported to the police as having been missing from their home on New High street for the past week. According to the mother, Mrs. J. Linder, her daughters went to Redondo, and she thought they were spending their time with friends. Last night she learned that the friends of the two young women had seen them at the resort some days ago, but had turned them over to the police. The police department makes a special effort to locate the children.

Architects and Engineers.

The annual meeting of the Engineers' and Architects' Association of Los Angeles was held at Levy's last night, and officers were chosen for the coming year. These are J. B. Lippincott, president; F. D. Herndon, vice-president; Fred L. Baker, second vice-president, and H. S. Osborne, Jr., secretary and treasurer. The new directors are Sumner P. Hunt, Henry E. Brett, Homer Hamlin and Theodore A. Elen. Mr. Lippincott presided, and short speeches were made by Capt. Freise and Mr. Kellogg. The evening concluded with a general discussion of reinforced concrete. Four weeks from Saturday a trip to San Pedro will be made.

PROBE FURNITURE TRUST.

Government Tries to Break Monopoly's Grasp on Schools, Churches and Theaters.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The government's effort to loosen the grip which the so-called furniture trust has on the schools, houses, churches and theaters of the country, began today.

Among the witnesses summoned are men who claim to have been forced out of business, as well as former employees of the combine, who are willing to tell of its inner workings.

The government will seek to show that while there may be several apparently distinctive firms making school, church and theater seats and furnishings, they really constitute one gigantic combine.

CUTS FOR MAIL BUSINESS.

Burlington Makes Reduction in Rates Rather Than Lose Postal Contract.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The Inter-Ocean today says:

"In order to prevent the transcontinental mail from being transferred to the Rock Island system, the Burlington Railroad has notified the Postoffice Department that it will cut its rates for this service about 7 per cent, equal to about $6.00 per annum."

The Burlington's proposition caused amazement in railway circles yesterday in view of the bills which have been introduced in Congress to lessen the pay to railroads for mail service.

SCHOONER DASHED ON ROCKS.

Ship Goes to Pieces and Whole Crew Is Lost in "Graveyard of the Atlantic."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NORFOLK (Va.) Feb. 7.—A three-masted schooner, which was driven ashore Tuesday night upon the southwest corner of the diamond shoal, off the treacherous Hatteras coast, for a century known as the grave yard of the Atlantic coast, went to pieces in a raging sea last night, and when the life-savers arose at daybreak today to renew efforts which failed yesterday to rescue the crew, no trace of the schooner was seen.

There is no doubt of the loss of all the crew who yesterday were seen clinging to the rigging.

WRECK ON VALLEY LINE.

Derailment of Freight Train Tears Up Track North of Saugus and All Trains Are Delayed.

A serious freight wreck occurred late last night on the valley division of the Southern Pacific, which caused a delay of all trains on that portion of the system. The report that reached the officials in this city was to the effect that a freight train had been derailed, tearing up several hundred feet of track and blocking the line near the end of one of the short tunnels north of Saugus. Train No. 7, which left here for San Francisco 11:18 o'clock last night, is held at Saugus, and train No. 4, south-bound, soon the other side of the wreck. The wrecking train was sent from this city, and it was stated at River Station at 2 o'clock this morning that the line probably would not be opened before some time this morning. So far as known here no one was injured.

FRANCE CLINGS TO RUSSIA.

Foreign Minister Announces That Dual Alliance Is Stronger Than Ever.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PARIS, Feb. 7.—There was a notable demonstration in the Chamber of Deputies today in favor of the Franco-Russian alliance. It occurred after an interpellation by M. Rouanet, socialist, relative to the so-called financial intrigues of the French banks, as a result of which French savings are declared to have been diverted from the Rentes and sacrificed to provide money with which to "assassinate the Emperor of Russia and crush a struggling people."

M. Tichon, the Foreign Minister, replied to M. Rouanet and repeated rounds of applause, saying:

"Nothing has occurred to warrant loss of confidence in Russian finances or Russian friendship. France and Russia are mutually supporting each other every day, thus contributing to the peace of the world. The attachment of France to her ally is stronger than ever."

M. Delcasse, the former Foreign Minister, who seldom speaks in the chamber, joined with M. Tichon in protesting vigorously against this attack on Russia.

RECOVER MANY BODIES.

ELKINS (W. Va.) Feb. 7.—Twenty-two bodies have been recovered from mine No. 55, at Thomas, W. Va., where an explosion occurred last Monday. Including Mine Boss Jones, who lost his life while attempting rescue, the death list numbers twenty-three.

Harriman's Hold on Salt Lake Shown at Interstate Commerce Hearing.

Wizard Makes Rates and Routes to Suit, Controls Territory and Shipments and Manipulates Prosperity,
but He Treats Santa Fe With Respect, for Rockefeller Has Possession—One-sided Agreements.

HARRIMAN, through the Union Pacific, controls the Salt Lake Railroad. To secure right of way through the Meadow Valley Wash in Utah the Salt Lake turned over to Harriman a half interest in the road and the right to appoint half of the members of the board of directors.

The Salt Lake has an agreement with the Union Pacific to permit the latter to make rates over the Salt Lake tracks in Utah.

The Salt Lake, Southern Pacific and Santa Fe have a mutual agreement in regard to rates in Southern California.

The famous five-day citrus special train between Los Angeles and Chicago was withdrawn by the Salt Lake owing to pressure brought to bear.

The Santa Fe, a Rockefeller property, looms up as an immense from the tactics of Harriman.

The Union Pacific controls the Southern Pacific and the Salt Lake alike.

These facts were developed at yesterday's hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Santa Fe officials may be placed on the stand today.

of evidence came the whisper that it was a "Rockefeller" road and that the Railroad Wizard had stopped short of affronting the Old Man of No. 26 Broadway. It was found that the Santa Fe was not treated as a weakling, as the Salt Lake had been, but that it was considered a foe worthy of the steel of Harriman, and as such was accorded all it asked.

STANDARD OIL CONTROL.

H. H. Rogers, of Standard Oil fame, is the controlling spirit in the Santa Fe, and there has been a policy of hands off the Santa Fe on the part of the Harriman lines.

An attempt was made to show that the famous five-day citrus express between Los Angeles and Chicago over the Salt Lake and Union Pacific had been discontinued, owing to objections from the Southern Pacific. J. Ross Clark was unable to state the exact cause of the discontinuance of the train, except that as the Salt Lake was a new road, its equipment and roadbed was unequal to the strain of such a fast freight train.

The little courtroom in the Bullard block was crowded to its utmost capacity at least a half-hour before the trial of the Santa Fe on the part of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which was at 10 o'clock. Business men, railroad men, orange growers and oil well owners were in evidence.

At a long table in front of the bar of justice the attorneys for the government and the railroads were gathered. Opposed to these two gentlemen were former Judge Kelley and Attorney Dunn. Then, seated by the side of the government attorneys, was the great Stubbins, who is said to be absolute dictator of traffic over the largest railroad mileage controlled by any man in the world. Stubbins was directly back of Dunn, and frequent whisperings occurred during the day.

BATTLE BEGINS.

SHERIFF GETS THE BOOKS.

Third Party and New Phase to the Troubles of Mining Company.
Compromise Possible.

Following the introduction of a third party in the troubles of the Mt. Gaius Consolidated Mining Company, another phase has been added. In addition to the two factions already warring, some of the stockholders, through their attorneys, Hahn & Hahn, made a petition that the affairs of the concern be put in the hands of a receiver.

Immediately thereafter, Davis, Kemp & Post, attorneys for the faction headed by Long, president of the company, sued out a writ of replevin, directed against W. T. Carter, who had the books. The Sheriff descended on his office, and took possession of several books and papers, which are now in his keeping.

Although so many suits have been started, and so many moves made on either side, there is a possibility that a compromise may be made. A conference of the attorneys on both sides was held yesterday, and some progress made in this direction.

RANCHMAN OF ARTESIA SCARES OFF DOVE OF PEACE.

John White Says He Has to Go
Ten Miles to Milk His Cows and
He Doesn't Like It—Claims the People Own Him Nine Hundred Dollars and Must Pay.

Old John White, a ranchman of Artesia, has scared off the white dove of peace that was supposed to have visited the feud between the Artesia farmers and workmen of the J. Ross Clark ranch.

Unless the people of Artesia pay him $900 he claims to be owing him, White vows he will turn the demon river—the San Gabriel—into the town.

To prevent interference while doing this, White said yesterday that he will immediately place a man armed with a rifle on his ranch. Under this guard he will dam up the river and let the wild flood waters go where they will.

He claims—statements of the Artesia people to the contrary—a good deal of a share of the flood would go into the town of Artesia.

White has a sort of "unwritten law" behind his frenzy.

"Since they let that river onto my ranch," he said yesterday, "I have to go ten miles to milk my cow. At least I would have to if I left her in the cow pasture where she belongs. To get to one part of my little ranch from the other, I have to walk all the way up to the bridge near Artesia and back again. To make the round trip from the ranch-house and back is a walk of, at least ten miles."

White says that the association of Artesia people who were trying to curb the fury of the San Gabriel River wanted to run it through his place below Artesia. He refused to give permission unless they bought the land.

He says that after a good deal of dickering they agreed to give him $1500, of which $1000 was to be made as first payment, and actually paid down $100 pending his establishment of the abstract of title. White claims they did not keep their bargain and deny him the rest. The Artesia association says they sold the property to Dr. Bellows, and it is for him to pay.

The old ranchman says he is positive that the flood water—or at least part of it—would run down into the town if he blocked up the new course.

He asserts his firm intention of so doing unless they pay up his $900 balance instant.

This is a new way of collecting a bill—with a river as a threatener.

White, who now lives on Twenty-eighth street, having moved from Artesia, came up town yesterday with the intention of filing suit, but took legal advice and will attempt to recapture his ranch from the Artesia people.

He asserts that Dr. Bellows now has possession of the place.

If he follows out his plans of damming up the course of the flood with alien trees and brush, the whole country thereabout will be flooded in the next freshets.

TIN CAN FEUD FINDS AN END.

Buena Vista-Street Wonder Is Now Explained.

Aged Mother Flaunts Defiance to the Very End.

When She Dies the Cans Are Removed by Son.

As day dawned yesterday on a little cottage over on Buena Vista street, life flickered from the body of aged Mrs. James Stewart, and with the going out of her breath evidences of a neighborhood feud as suddenly disappeared.

In the cottage with the aged mother lived her son, James, and a daughter, and for the past five or six years place has been made notorious to all passers on Buena Vista street, by the appearance of a number of five-gallon oil cans, and other objects dangling from a line, held in place by two high poles, in the front yard of the cottage. The cans were lettered on all sides with something like this:

"Our neighbor, he has been canned."

"Though all sorts of protests to the police and frequent arrests of James Stewart failed to move the dangling cans, they were gone yesterday, Mr. Stewart having removed them early in the morning after the passing of his mother."

The explanation given by those familiar with the origin of the trouble between the Stewarts and the Donnattins is this:

ORIGIN OF TROUBLE.

Mrs. Stewart was estranged from her husband, who has not lived with her for many years, but she lived in the cottage with her daughter and a brother of her husband. The latter claimed that Mr. Donnatin had said something derogatory to the character of the daughter, and hung up the lettered cans in retaliation, claiming that Donnatin had been discharged from his employment with a railroad company under a cloud, both of which charges were strenuously denied; but nothing would move the cans.

Several years ago the brother-in-law of Mrs. Stewart went to Alaska to seek his fortune, and was never again heard from, and it was at this time that James Stewart, the son, came here from the South and took up his residence at the cottage, to take care of his mother and sister.

And the objectionable cans still remained in the front yard.

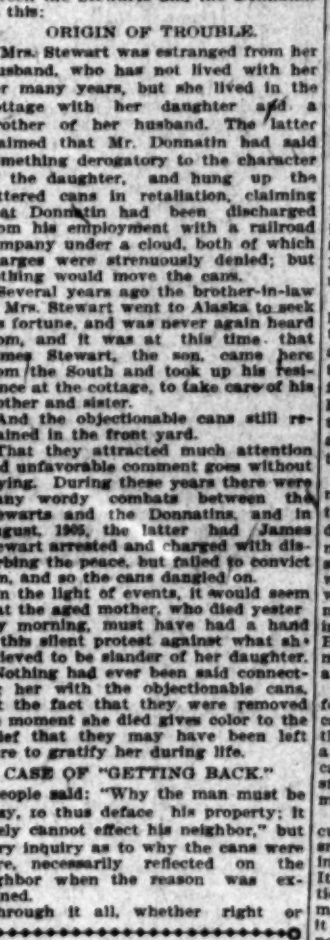

That they attracted much attention and unfavorable comment goes without saying. During these years there were many wordy combats between the Stewarts and the Donnattins, and in August, 1905, the latter had James Stewart arrested and charged with disturbing the peace, but failed to convict him, and so the cans dangled on.

In the light of events, it would seem that the aged mother, who died yesterday morning, must have had a hand in this silent protest against what she believed to be slander of her daughter. Nothing had ever been said connecting her with the objectionable cans, but the fact that they were removed the moment she died gives color to the belief that they may have been left there to gratify her during life.

CASE OF "GETTING BACK."

People said: "Why the man must be crazy, to thus deface his property; it surely cannot offend his neighbor," but every inquiry as to why the cans were there, necessarily reflected on the neighbor when the reason was explained.

Through it all, whether right or

EGGS TAKE A TUMBLE.

Prices Smash When Two Carloads Arrive and Hens Get Busy.

Two carloads of eggs took a drop yesterday and the wholesale egg dealers lost about $4000.

It wasn't the eggs that were broken, but the price. The fall was from 27 to 25 cents a dozen wholesale.

Eggs have been so scarce and prices have ruled so high that the merchants thought to take advantage of the market by rushing in, eastern eggs. They sent for two carloads by express. They arrived yesterday.

Meanwhile with the cantankerousness of the proverbial hen they all got busy when there was no absolute necessity. Yesterday they laid more eggs than ever and they "busted" the proposed corner in eggs.

Besides the two carloads eggs just poured into Los Angeles, and prices tumbled over each other to find a reasonable level. But the egg importers were sad. Many of them are now selling eggs at 22 cents a dozen for which they paid a short time ago from 27 to 40 cents.

Both the inhabitants and hens of Los Angeles county have increased during 1906. In January a year ago, 4498 cases of eggs were sold in this city at from 25 to 33 cents a dozen; last month 6145 cases of twelve-dozen eggs each sold here for from 32 to 42 cents a dozen.

By March 1 it is predicted that eggs will be 18 cents a dozen, and by March 15, they will be 16 cents a dozen. Then the cold storage men will put away a few thousand dozen to resurrect later as "fancy fresh ranch."

wrong, is seen the determination of James Stewart to bear all this for the sake of his mother. He is a plumber by trade and a steady workman. A lady who lives on Buena Vista street, said yesterday:

"It is a shame the way the Stewarts have been persecuted by somebody, and it looks to me as if this was the only way they had to protect against it. Almost every boy that passes their house throws stones at it, and every morning their place was littered with all sorts of rubbish."

Mrs. Stewart was taken with pneumonia a day or two ago, but showed no signs of speedy death on Wednesday. She suddenly expired yesterday morning. Besides the son and daughter, who lived with her, she leaves another son in East Los Angeles, who is very ill, and yesterday afternoon had not yet been informed of the death of his mother.

Provincial Superior of the Roman Catholic Church, Very Rev. Ramon Frail, accompanied by Rev. B. Mariano, superior of the cathedral at San Antonio, Tex., has been in this city during the past week, in consultation with Bishop Conaty concerning "The Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary."

The result of the consultation with Bishop Conaty is an agreement to bring a new community of priests here for special work among Mexicans. They will be located in the parish of San Fernando, over which they will have all parochial rights, and they will probably assume charge next week.

Besides the parochial work at San Fernando and its mission, the three fathers to be sent there by the superior will be prepared to assist throughout the diocese in work among Mexicans, or other work to which they may be called.

The religious order to which these priests belong dates its origin back to 1843, when it was formed in Spain, at about the same time that the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart was formed, and which now has a mother-house at Hollywood. It has two establishments in Texas, and this one at San Fernando will be the third in the United States.

One of the possibilities of this new move at San Fernando is the restoration of the old mission. Bishop Conaty declares that the talk of turning the mission into an amusement center of some sort is entirely out of harmony with his idea, and has no foundation whatever, but that it is his desire to make it a religious center, as it was in olden times. If one may judge from Bishop Conaty's activity all around it, may be assumed that this end will be attained at no very distant day.

The San Fernando Mission was founded September 8, 1797, and dedicated to Ferdinand, King of Spain, by the Jesuit fathers. In December, 1884, a dour church, with tile roof, was dedicated, and while in partial decay, is still standing where it was built, almost 100 years ago.

For years it has been one of the curiosities exhibited to tourists, and snap-shot cameras have carried its image into every State in the Union. Its restoration to its former condition of completeness will take from it much of the glamor of antiquity, but it will, no doubt, continue to be a point of interest until the end of time.

Some months ago a report was circulated one night that a fire had broken out in the San Fernando mission buildings, and that nothing but dour walls would be left to mark the spot. While the report proved to be without foundation, it nevertheless aroused much interest, and showed how much store is laid by these relics that connect two centuries, and mark the spots where the first attempts were made to break into the customs of the aborigines of the Pacific Coast.

MISS BAUMANN MARRIED.

Leading Actress at Local Theater Becomes Wife of Mine Owner from Mexico City.

Miss Annie Baumann, for months leading soprano of Fletcher's Theater, was married yesterday afternoon to William Henry, a mine owner of Mexico City. Like many other marriages of stage folk, this was a rather "short-order" affair. Miss Baumann met Henry only a week and a half ago, and the wedding yesterday was the climax of a quick courtship.

Miss Baumann was not in her place last week, having taken a short vacation. She has not been before the footlights so far this week, either, and Fletcher now is looking for another leading lady, as Henry has received an urgent message from Mexico City about business there, which demands his immediate return. He will leave within two days, and it is presumed his bride will go with him. Henry is a young man of pleasing appearance, and said to be wealthy.

Miss Baumann is an Oakland girl, and is well known among wage folk in San Francisco. She was forced to come to Los Angeles after the earthquake which devastated the northern city, and has been connected with the First-street playhouse, as leading woman, since. She has many friends in Los Angeles by her pleasing manner and beautiful singing.

URGING CONSOLIDATION.

Merchants and Manufacturers Adopt Resolution to This Effect, and Compliment Commission.

At the board meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association yesterday afternoon, a resolution was adopted complimenting the City and County Consolidation Commission on the work that has been accomplished, and urging the members of the Legislature to aid the commission in every possible way to attain the ends for which it was organized.

Representatives on the N.E.A. committee were also appointed, and a donation of $25 was made toward the expense of the Arbor Day celebration. Several new members were elected.

PIANOS
THE INFERIOR COURTS
OLD ENOUGH TO KNOW BETTER.
MAN AGED EIGHTY ARRESTED FOR STRIKING A WOMAN.

Frank Stadler, Notorious Keeper of "Blind Pigs," Heavily Fined for Selling Liquor Without License, and Only Condition of His Health Saves Him from a Jail Sentence.

Val Hoffman, aged 86, was brought into Police Court yesterday, charged with striking Mrs. Flora Horn, an old woman, over the head with a tin pail. The white-haired couple had quarreled over the question of rent, and the elderly had been gradually growing warmer until yesterday afternoon, at No. 1519 East Ninth street, the battery is alleged to have taken place.

According to the statement of the aged woman, she was busy at a hydrant, which Hoffman also used for his house, when he ordered her away. She refused to go, and she said he then swung a heavy tin pail, cutting her head. She fell bleeding. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital, and her assailant was arrested. His case will be heard the afternoon of February 11.

Stadler's Age Saves Him.
His age and the fact that he is ill saved Frank Stadler, proprietor of the "Mechanics' Club," from a straight jail sentence yesterday. In a talk to Stadler before he fined the latter $150, Judge Chambers spoke in plain language concerning blind pigs. Plainclothes officers had found the place running practically as a saloon. On two occasions arrests had been made, and the aftermath of the last had led to the sentence.

Such a club as Stadler's, said the court, violates the law, even though liquor be sold to members only. It is a violation of ordinances because the club's real purpose is to sell whisky and beer. The proprietor, in this instance, had begun to fight the case hard, but had ended after a jury was chosen by pleading guilty. But under the circumstances the court imposed what he said was a comparatively light fine. Stadler spent several hours in the City Jail before he raised all of the money necessary to keep him self out of jail. Another case on the same general accusation of liquor-selling contrary to ordinances will come up during the month in Judge Rose's court. This latter case has been pending for six months.

Japanese Loose Wife.
Kamayu Nakamamie applied to the City Prosecutor yesterday for a warrant for his wife's arrest. Tansu is the lady's first name. Her irate husband said that she had eloped with his cousin, T. Akahoshi. This pair had fallen in love with one another in their journey from Japan to San Francisco. The love which began in the steerage of an ocean steamship materialized in San Francisco, and resulted in elopement. The complainant came on to Los Angeles. In this city his wife rejoined him and got his forgiveness. Then the cousin appeared on the scene a second time, and his advent was followed by the disappearance of Yasu.

Nakamamie admitted that he used to beat his wife in Japan, where such discipline, he said, was customary. But as soon as she reached America the woman adopted accidental methods of settling her troubles. No complaint was issued.

"Save the Dollars" Sale of Furniture

The Reason for It

Our stock needs adjusting. We find it necessary to frequently close out broken suites, odd pieces and discontinued patterns. It is the only way to keep a stock healthy and fresh. Odd pieces are a burden to us, but worth par to you if you can use them. It is a sale with a reason—not a trumped-up subterfuge.

Everything Included

To make the Sale general we have reduced every piece of furniture in the house, the price cuts ranging from 10 to 33 1-3 per cent. And remember, please, that the reductions are just as you find them on the tickets. Prices are not "boosted" up so that they may be pulled down for effect. If you don't know, ask your neighbor about our reputation for quality.

What It Means to You

It means everything to you if you want to save. You may not know that furniture prices are advancing along with lumber. Further advances are forecasted by those in touch with the situation. It means that you can save and know what you save, for this sale is bona fide to a penny. We would rather pull down our signs than to resort to misrepresentation.

To give you an idea: Hall Furniture is reduced 20 per cent.; Brass Beds about 15 per cent.; Iron Beds about 20 per cent.; Parlor and Library Tables 15 per cent.; Dining Room Furniture 15 per cent.—and so on through the entire stock. Sold tickets are going on very fast—better come today.

Beverly Hills
A SUCCESS BEFORE IT STARTED

Beverly Hills was planned to be the most superb residence district in Southern California. The actual development is surpassing the plan. All the improvements that money and brains can devise have been combined with the remarkable natural advantages. Miles of broad, oiled streets lead into the foothills. Broad sidewalks, gas, electricity, telephones and sewer give the conveniences of the city. There is not a modern advantage that you can think of that Beverly Hills will not have. The new subway means 15-minute car service.

Adler does not believe you want to turn yourself into a lightning calculator. Adler figures that plain statements and clean-cut propositions appeal more strongly to the public than examples in arithmetic. Read below, you men who want clothing, and mothers with boys to dress. GOES TO SEEK NEW VICTIMS.

Boat Fakes, Osgoodby, Can't Be Found.

Merchants' Signatures Have Not Been Recovered.

Believed to Be Hatching a New Swindle.

One meek and smiling little boy is all that remains to greet the wrathful callers at the headquarters of the "Interstate Press Association." The boss faker, Osgoodby, and his attendant fakers, who hounded many well-known business men in this city, seem to have absconded themselves.

For nearly a week a detective has been on the trail of Osgoodby trying to get back the signatures foolishly given by the easily misled business men.

To all was called the smiling little boy reports that Mr. Osgoodby and Mr. Cuyler and every one else "is out."

Byron, the collector, who was used yesterday that Cuyler and Harburger—the ostensible managers of the institution—have left town.

The office of the "Interstate Press Association" in the Lakeside Hotel was, open yesterday, and several of the boys used as collectors and solicitors wandered aimlessly in and out during the day; those in authority did not appear.

NOW THEY'RE WORRIED.

The business men of the city are worried over Osgoodby's disappearance with their signatures. As heretofore detailed in The Times, Osgoodby has a number of genuine signatures of the wealthiest and most prominent business men in the city—obtained by misrepresentation.

They have not been able—even through detectives—to locate Osgoodby or his circle. What new skull-duggery he meditates to use them for can only be imagined.

The office rent of the "Interstate Press Association" is paid until February 20. After that Osgoodby—hugger his list of signatures—will probably fade away as he has done before.

Since the original exposure of his "association" many of his previous victims have turned up. Most of their stories indicate that this elusiveness is part of Osgoodby's regular stunt.

MANY SAY "TAKEN IN."

One woman writes that she was taken in by his San Diego lots. After giving her a glowing description, he asked that she should go to San Diego and look at the lots. If she was not entirely satisfied she could have her money back. She was to make a payment down—which she did—merely to "get the choice of lots."

The woman went down to San Diego and waited ten days for Osgoodby to appear on the scene, as he had promised to show her the lots. All she could find was a big unplanted wilderness, to which Osgoodby could not give a clear title.

She came back to the city and called many, many times to see him to get her money back. He was always "out." He was reported as "attending directors' meetings," "out of the city," etc. One day when she called she found the office vacant. Osgoodby had skipped.

MEDICAL LIBRARY HANDED OVER.

DR. BARLOW PRESENTS KEYS AND TITLE.

Munificent Gift Highly Appreciated by the Profession—Stocked With Books for Free Use of All Schools of Medicine—Declared Fireproof and Quakeproof.

The formal dedication of the new Medical Library, on Buena Vista street, opposite the College of Medicine, took place last night, in the presence of a number of members of the medical profession of the city, and a number of ladies and gentlemen outside the profession.

Dr. George P. Howard, president of the University of Southern California, presided, and opened the ceremonies with prayer.

Dr. W. Jarvis Barlow, the donor of the splendid building, made a brief address, at the close of which he presented a deed for the property and the keys of the library to the Clinical Association.

The address accepting the trust, and extending to Dr. Barlow the gratitude of the profession, was made by Dr. Joseph Kurtz, president of the Clinical Association.

Dr. Milbank Johnson, president of the Board of Trustees, congratulated the profession upon the good fortune that has befallen them in the acquisition of so valuable an agency in their calling. He stated that while the use of the library is absolutely free to members of the profession, of whatever rank or position, it is nevertheless necessary to provide funds for the proper maintenance of the library, and to accomplish this end, three kinds of membership have been provided. Those members paying an annual fee of $25 will be entitled to all the privileges of the library, may take from the library any reasonable number of books, and have a vote in the election of trustees; those paying $10 a year will be permitted to take from the library two books each year; those paying $5 may take one book each year. Dr. Johnson, however, emphasized the point that all members of the medical profession are urged to make liberal use of its advantages "without money and without price." He declared the building to be earthquakeproof and fireproof, and that it will last for all time.

Rev. B. E. Howard made the general address of the evening, congratulating the medical profession upon the fact that there were no strings on the gift, and that no school of practice is excluded from its benefits. The exercises closed with a brief address by Dr. W. A. Edwards.

The library is a small, circular building, ideally arranged with a series of book alcoves extending from the outer walls toward the center of the dome, on the main floor and balcony, the whole being absolutely fireproof. The building alone, without the ground, cost Dr. Barlow $22,000, which fact alone tells of the excellence of construction. It has just been stocked with books from the libraries of the profession throughout the city, and was opened to public inspection for the first time yesterday afternoon. At the close of the dedicatory ceremonies last night an informal reception was held, and light refreshments served.

Two heavy oak, semi-circular tables, making almost a complete circle of the interior, provide for the convenience of book users, and the whole is admirably lighted with electric lights.

Local Business Men Hold to Make Ten Thousand on Corner—Woman Quizzes Makes Deal.

Colson, Bryan & Donnell report the sale of the southeast corner of Seventh street and Burlington avenue, 10x30 feet, improved with a good twelve-room house for $22,000. The seller is Dr. Rose L. Burman, and the buyer a local business man who boldly confesses that he buys as a speculation, and holds to make $10,000 within a few months.

FARMING FOR PROFIT.

R. E. Ibbotson & Co. buy through M. W. Sweetser of Garden Grove, of Jensen Jones 160 acres about one and one-half miles southwest of Garden Grove; consideration $16,000. They are developing water and will install a pumping plant for irrigation purposes and have it leased for five years.

They also buy 140 acres from the Ganahl estate, one mile south of Garden Grove, paying $17,000. They have leased this property for six years for $15 an acre cash rent, and are developing 150 inches of water and installing a pumping plant for irrigation purposes. They have also purchased from Thomas A. Chaille forty acres about two miles northeast of Garden Grove, paying $40,000.

This firm has in the last six months leased under five and six-year leases, something over 500 acres of its own lands at $15 an acre cash rent, for strawberries, cabbage, potatoes and general farming and gardening purposes, has developed about 500 inches of water for irrigation purposes, and is farming on its own account about 200 acres purchased in the last eighteen months.

BUYS ON HOPE.

Justice W. Rice reports the following sale: Mary Ann Hamon and Elizabeth J. Hamon to Nellie J. Boswell and Nettie G. Noyes, the property known as No. 1407 South Hope street, lot 12x15 feet to twenty-foot alley, improved with a twelve-room house; consideration $12,500.

NATIVE SONS' INSTALLATION.

OFFICERS OF YOUNGEST PARLOR PLACED IN OFFICE.

La Fiesta Members Now Officially Recognized as a Factor of the Order—Nine New Natives Adopted to Membership—Pleasant Evening Concludes With a Feast.

Two score Native Sons, forming the youngest parlor of the order in the state, had their formal christening last night in the installation ceremonies of La Fiesta Parlor, No. 208, which was held at Native Sons Hall on West Second street. About sixty natives were present, and among these were the presidents of the four older parlors in this city, and H. C. Lichtenberger, one of the Grand Parlor officers.

The installation was conducted by Ed Lovey of this city, Deputy Grand President for Southern California, and the following is the list of officers installed:

E. H. Hall, Past President; William Goldsmith, President; H. H. Hall, First Vice-President; George Barber, Second Vice-President; George Barber, Third Vice-President; J. F. Seymour, Jr., Marshal; Frank Raymond, Inside Sentinel; Ed Bennett, Outside Sentinel; C. Amestoy, Fred Vaughn and James Macellin, Trustees.

La Fiesta Parlor is the baby of the state, and was organized about four months ago, with twenty charter members. It at once jumped into the social whirlpool by giving a ball at Kramer's Hall on December 24. Its progress has been very satisfactory, for it not only took in new members last night, but had the honor of entertaining the presidents of the four older parlors of this city, these being Fred Burdette of Sierra Parlor, I. Baumgardner of Los Angeles, Ed Lovey of Corona and William Coles of Ramona. It is already making a bid for fame by initiating a movement for the preservation of the relics of old-time California, the idea being to secure samples of pottery, paintings, and statuary and hold these until a Native Sons' Memorial Hall can be erected.

Following the installation, the following program was given:

Guitar solo, Charles Knoff; recitation, Ben Scott; guitar and mandolin duet, Charles Knoff and George Artz; piccolo and piano duet, Charles Knoff and W. McConnell; vocal quartette, Clarence Brierley, E. H. H. H. and C. Hall; song, W. McConnell; recitation, Charles Brierley.

After this programme, refreshments were served in the adjoining hall. J. F. Seymour, Jr., acted as toastmaster and the list of toasts was as follows:

"The Visitors," William Coles; "Native Sons," Arthur Farmer; "Good of the Order," Dr. Laard; "Members," Fred Burdette; "Grand Officers," H. C. Lichtenberger; "Fat Men," Grant Johnson; "Relics of California," J. F. Seymour, Jr.; "The Delegates," La Fiesta," Ed Lovey.

DIVORCE LAW IS TOO LAZY

Commission in Campaign to Strengthen It.

Five Amendments Proposed in State Senate.

Changes in View Warranted.

Leases Suits.

"Our laws brand as criminal, summarily deal with and punish criminal: one who marries a dog or a jack rabbit; but who tramples upon the law, God and the well being of society, by taking the solemn obligation of marriage vow, and ruins the life and happiness of the one he has sworn to love and cherish."

This is the strong arraignment of the California statutes on divorce brought by the Southern California Inter-Parliamentary Commission on Marriage and Divorce. The organization is conducting an active campaign, with the object of securing various amendments to the State laws at the present meeting of the Legislature.

Through its chairman, Dr. R. H. Lyman, the commission has just passed a document headed "The Cry of Divorce," in which pertinent facts are set forth. Among them are the following:

DIVORCE FIGURES.

There was one divorce case for every 100 marriages in Los Angeles county last year.

More than one-half of the divorces in the State of California are granted on the ground of desertion or failure to provide for the support of the wife. Divorces are brought by the wife in 60 per cent of the cases. There is no appeal from the judgment in 90 per cent of the cases. Many cases are settled by the parties, and the court is not called upon to decide the merits of the case. Many cases are settled by the parties, and the court is not called upon to decide the merits of the case.

WOULD REPRESENT STATE.

Probably the most important of them is the one providing for the attendance of the District Attorney in all divorce cases, on behalf of the State, and at every stage of the proceedings to examine and investigate all affidavits, pleadings, motions, depositions, admissions, testimony, evidence and all other matters in connection therewith, and to present to the court a full and complete statement of the facts in each case, and to recommend to the court the proper course to be followed in each case.

PERMITS FOR DODGING.

Still another bill provides for the punishment of any person who is guilty of fraud in presenting or concealing material facts in divorce cases.

And an amendment is proposed whereby any person who commits adultery, and every married person who is guilty of habitual intemperance or who is guilty of extreme cruelty or of desertion, shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1000, or by imprisonment for one year, or both.

The commission would amend the present laws so as to provide that the court shall be empowered to grant a divorce on the following grounds: desertion, fraud, habitual intemperance or cohabitation with a person guilty of adultery, and in all actions of fraud to examine and investigate all affidavits, pleadings, motions, depositions, admissions, testimony, evidence and all other matters in connection therewith, and to present to the court a full and complete statement of the facts in each case, and to recommend to the court the proper course to be followed in each case.

CEMENT SOFT IN THE PIER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY MADE IN LONG BEACH.

Wharfing Finds the Condition Under the Work of the Calais—Board of Public Works Notified and Will Take Steps to Have the Faulty Work Settled.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 10.—When the city's pier was constructed three years ago, rumors floated about that the municipality had been "jobbed," but no absolute proof was ever presented. The rumors were finally attributed to the knaves of those who were opposed to the expenditure of so large a sum of money.

As time passed, however, conditions developed which were hard to explain. A year ago soundings were taken, resulting in the discovery that the sand around the caissons had been washed away to the depth of six or eight feet, and soon after a storm swept away the pier, leaving a gaping hole in the harbor.

The pier was a failure, and the city was forced to spend a large sum of money to rebuild it. The discovery was a startling one, and the city was forced to take steps to have the faulty work settled.

GLENDALE PULLS FOR NORMAL.

SEEKS TO SECURE SCHOOL FOR THAT CITY.

City Trustees Call Election on the Question of Issuing Bonds for Municipal Improvements—Forty-Year Plan on a Six Per Cent Basis.

GLENDALE, Feb. 7.—This town hopes to secure the State Normal School, in the event of the institution being moved from Los Angeles. Action looking to that end was taken by the Board of Trade here at its meeting last night.

When the State purchased the property in Los Angeles, it was by the normal school, it paid $500 for the four acres which has since been occupied and is now outgrown. There is a standing offer of $500,000 for the property, and a bid about to pass the Legislature providing for its sale.

It is urged that Glendale meets the requirements for a location for the school. Among the points argued is that it is accessible by only twenty minutes from the city. Citizens of Glendale generally pledge their cooperation in the effort to secure it.

CALL BOND ELECTION. City bond issues amounting to $22,000 are in prospect here. At a meeting of the City Trustees last night an election for that purpose was called for the 10th inst. one of the times is $1,000 for a city hall and site. It is proposed that the city hall shall have a bonded debt of $1,000, and the other half of $1,000 for a city hall and site.

MEN ADMIRE

a pretty face, a good figure, but sooner or later learns that the healthy, happy, contented woman is most of all to be admired.

Women troubled with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, headache, the "blues," and those dreadfully dragging sensations cannot help but be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Runtzler, of 331 State St., Bohemian, N. Y., writes: "For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Changing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."
